BASTER SERVICES YESTERDAY.

All Churches in the City Hold Impressive

Easter was observed quite generally services. separtment of Sears, Roebuck & Co.'s yesterday in this city, both morning and evening, at the various churches The weather was not all that could have been expected at this season of the year, but withat the wind and throatened showers nearly every restdent turned out to attend Easter services at the churches. Beautiful conlumes in the latest designs were very much in evidence and to a certain degree the day proved a success to the fair sex, despitte the cold and gloomy atmosphere.

The Raster services at the Congregaional church began with a sunrise prayer meeting under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor society, and in spite of the gloomy weather was ite taste and good management, made well attended.
